

MC LAURA O

MC Laura O is an award-winning multimedia journalist and professional emcee. For over a decade, she has dedicated her career to amplifying the voices of underrepresented communities, promoting diverse narratives, and fostering environments where authenticity thrives. She channels that same mission hosting hundreds of events across the US and internationally.

She is a conductor of energy, a weaver of stories, and a master of connection. She creates an atmosphere of good energy where guests are captivated, inspired, and leave with cherished memories.

MC Laura O.'s work is built on the E³ Framework, transforming events into story-driven, high-impact moments for one-day or multi-day events.

Modinat Kotun-Thomas | Attorney

I highly recommend [MC] Laura O as an exceptional event host and emcee. She was an invaluable part of the success of the Nigerian-American Multicultural Council's 11th Annual Gala.

From start to finish, she was the ultimate professional—responsive, reliable, and remarkably affordable.

What stood out most was her ability to engage our diverse audience with energy, warmth, and ease. She kept the program flowing seamlessly, handled transitions gracefully, and brought just the right amount of personality and polish to the evening. Behind the scenes, she was also a calming presence—always on time, communicative, and incredibly helpful in making sure everything stayed on track.

If you're looking for someone to elevate your next event, look no further. LauraO delivers with grace, professionalism, and poise. We are so grateful for her contribution and look forward to working with her again.

Mr. Kenneth Ekechukwu | Healthcare Administrator

She's a woman who has mastered her craft and knows what she is doing, and a woman who can understand different cultures depending on what event she is doing. That's amazing because not everyone has the ability to do that. She has the ability to adopt to any environment she is in that is awesome... it's phenomenal.

Faith Adole | Founder, U-VOL Foundation

MC Laura O was our emcee for the [U-VOL Foundation fundraiser gala]. It was incredible. She helped us raise a bunch of money. [There were] great laughs, dancing, great food. We're so grateful.
